Texas has a zero tolerance policy. This means if you are under 21 and any amount of alcohol is detected you go straight to jail.

Drivers between 16-20 are 17 times more likely to die in a crash when they have a BAC of .08% compared to when they have not been drinking.

A first time offender could potentially pay between $5,000 to $24,000 for a DWI arrest and conviction. A cab ride is much cheaper.

90% of Americans with a substance abuse problem started smoking, drinking or using other drugs before age 18.